

CRC TiME Forum Speaker Biography - Dr Eric Lilford

Dr Eric Lilford joined Curtin University 4 years ago as a lecturer and researcher and is an Associate Professor in Minerals and Energy Economics, WASM: Minerals and Chemical Engineering. His +30 year career has seen him in mining production and management positions including as MD/CEO and other Board positions covering numerous commodities worldwide, in directorship and partnership roles in investment banking and other corporate finance services, in analytical roles with mining companies and securities investment advisory companies, and in consultancy mandates with organisations including the IMF, the OECD and other entities. Eric is well-published in the fields of engineering, and minerals and energy economics