

CRC TiME 2 23

ANNUAL FORUM

First Nations Bursary Application Form

CRC TiME's Annual Forum will be held on the 21st – 23rd November in the Latrobe Valley, Victoria. This year's theme is 'Bridging Diverse Interests'.

We are offering three paid bursaries for First Nations people to attend this event with a value between $2,000 and $2,500 to cover registration to attend, flights, some meals and accommodation. Expenses outside of this will be at the delegate's own cost.

The bursaries are open to First Nations people only. Individuals are encouraged to express their interest in attending by applying for one of the three bursaries by completing the form below.

Name:

Organisation:

Location:

Are you an Indigenous Australian?

Yes

No

Please provide a description of how this event would benefit yourself, your organisation and your community?

What is your current involvement in mine closure and transition processes?

Expressions of interest are to be submitted by 12:00pm (AWST) 2 October 2023 to info@crctime.com.au. Applicants will be notified whether they are successful by email before 16 October 2023.

For further information contact Engagement Manager (First Nations), Caroline Williams.